

you, Didi has already signed off on a lift, and a rental of a bike, and a part time E.A for camp. She's a godsend!

Alice I would try! I was always coming up against my damn supervisor, Jim! You should go find Jim and give him a piece of your mind.

Carrie It's really amazing how much I look forward to seeing you. I'll see you tomorrow! I'll bring Paul's muffins!

Alice Wait, Carrie, How long can this go on? You can't do this. You can't keep me here forever!

Carrie I know, but so far it's working out really well for us! Do you have any laundry?

Carrie starts gathering up the laundry and turns around with her back to Alice. Alice picks up the mop handle and screams and swings to hit Carrie with it. Effortlessly, Carrie blocks her, stops her and pins her down. Alice yells. Carrie yells. She lays there on top of Alice pinning her.

START

Carrie Are you going to try that again?

Alice No.

Carrie Should we stay like this a while?

Pause

Carrie Alice, are you going to attack me again?

Alice No.

Carrie notices something on the floor.

Carrie Did you do these?

Alice You said it was ok to use supplies.

Carrie No it's fine, I like those. Very pretty. Simple but elegant.

Alice I just traced them.

Carrie Oh.

Alice But thanks.

Carrie I have to go.

Alice So, go.

Carrie I have three seasons of Downton Abbey but since you tried to hurt me, I'm not feeling...

Alice Please! I'll do anything for season three!

Carrie I wonder how many times you said-
"You need to focus on what you do have and not what you don't have" and, how many times you told me you knew so many families that had such higher needs, so many-

Alice There are other families in way worst shape.

Carrie I know that, but how did you reach that conclusion? You've never asked us how we are doing. You've never seen our van that is about to die, or our house, you don't even know our income.

Alice I know that you are privileged and entitled. You think everyone owes you something. You have a shitty van. So buy a better van. Why should I pay for that?

Carrie You?

Alice Plenty of people use Handi – Transit. You think you're too good for Handi Transit.

Carrie I was right, there is really no reason for who gets what. You just choose based on your personal feelings.

Alice There are criteria and rules. You just think the rules don't apply to you. You don't just get to help yourself to whatever you want just because you have a child with a disability. Get in line!

Carrie I have a gun. And it's not registered to me. Don't ever fuck with me again.

Alice You should never have a gun in a house with children. The statistics of gun related deaths go/ up by-

Carrie Don't ever try to mess with me again!

Alice Ok, Ok. When are you going to let me go?

Carrie You are NEVER getting out of here! I'm leaving and I'm taking my DVDs with me.
